

Social Media Policy

Social media (including personal and professional websites, blogs, chat rooms and bulletin boards; social networks, such as Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter and Instagram; video-sharing sites such as YouTube) are a common means of communication and self-expression.

It's essential that students, parents/guardians, coaches and volunteers make informed decisions about how they use the internet, mobile phone and email communications to protect our club and our people.

Everyone involved in our club has the responsibility to safeguard both within and outside the dojo, including communications.

It is the responsibility of everyone associated with Kazoku Ju-Jitsu to:

1. Refrain from publishing comments about other clubs, practitioners or referees and any controversial or potentially inflammatory subjects.
2. Avoid hostile or harassing communications in any posts or other online communications. Harassment is any offensive conduct based on a person's race, sex, gender identity, national origin, colour, disability, age, sexual orientation, veteran status, marital status, religion or any other status protected by law.
3. Clubs should identify all copyrighted or borrowed material with citations and links. When publishing direct paraphrased quotes, thoughts, ideas, photos or videos, give credit to the original publisher or author.
4. The club will be responsible for reviewing responses to online posts and resolving any concerns before they are posted.
5. If a blogger or any other online participant posts an inaccurate or negative comment about the club or anyone associated with the club, do not reply but seek advice from your NGB/CSP or Sport England.
6. Refrain from posting photographs or video of other children to social media platforms unless parental consent is given.
7. Adhere to the Kazoku Ju-Jitsu Photography & Video Policy with regards to the posting of images or video of children to social media platforms.
